PERSONAL NARRATIVE

Tips for Organizing and Planning

- Plan the beginning, middle, and end of your personal narrative.
- Make a list of all the events and details that are part of your narrative.
- Organize the events in the order that they happened.
- Include only those events that are important to the telling of the story.
- Focus on the main point of your personal narrative at all times.
- Make sure that each event and detail relates directly to the main focus of your narrative.
